

Technical Support Guide

Authentication failures may occur when a user's VPN certificate has expired.

Error code NET-AUTH-9187 indicates that the VPN certificate is expired. When this error occurs, the certificate must be renewed before the user can reconnect.

For general VPN connection problems, employees should verify their network connection and confirm that the corporate VPN client is running.